The Clouds Lifting.

The panic bids fair to subside even sooner than we anticipated. The feeling, yesterday, was decidedly better. The New York Money Market showed a very marked improvement. Stocks were up, and money easier. Secession sensation items were comparatively scarce. In our own market, matters looked much better, currency was plenty, and prices of breadstuffs advanced a peg, or two. In short, the clouds are lifting, and we may soon look for sunshine again.

A Good Indication.

From the Louisville (Ky.) Journal.

We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter written to a gentleman in this city by a highly respectable and influential citizen of Marietta, Georgia:

MARIETTA, Nov. 14, 1860.

DEAR SIR:—The great political battle has been fought, the victory won by Lincoln, and the smoke sufficiently cleared away to count the number of the slain, and view prospectively the future. South Carolina will secede, no one will follow her, or mourn her loss. Savannah, Columbus and Atlanta have taken their position prematurely.—They adopted the Savannah resolutions. The meeting was composed of the vulgar and the rabble of the city, with a few disappointed politicians, and some ten or twenty from the country. Said meeting for will not give the sentiment of Atlanta or the country around. I also attended a called meeting at this place on last Saturday, that passed the Savannah resolutions. This meeting was like the Atlanta, only it had two military chieftains from the Institute of this place. Two old citizens, one from the country, opposed the resolutions, and called a meeting next Saturday, the 17th inst., and sent out the enclosed circular. Cobb county gave 700 majority for Breckinridge and voted 2,014, and will now give 1,500 majority for the Union; and so it goes, Northern Georgia against Southern Georgia. I am for fighting for our rights in the Union. I think the political struggle for the office will soon pass, the panic subside, and the commercial atmosphere brighten and illuminate trade of all kinds. All who are able to take advantage of the present panic, will realize large profits."

ARMS FOR THE SOUTH.—The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser of Tuesday last contains the following paragraph:

"One hundred and eighty cases of Sharpe's patent carbines, containing ten rounds each, amounting in arms for 1800 men, and forty cases of conical balls, each containing 7,000 bullets, were shipped to Georgia yesterday from Hartford. This shipment is only the first of a large order given by the State of Georgia."

The "Yankees" are driving a lively trade with the "Cotton States," just now; selling them arms, ammunition, &c., without ever once bothering their heads about what the South propose to do with these munitions of war. These "Yankees" are a hard people to scare.

MISSISSIPPI.—The Philadelphia Press has the following in regard to Mississippi:

"No Southern State has stronger Union antecedents than Mississippi. It was carried by Harrison in 1840, notwithstanding he was charged with Abolitionism. In 1850 it declared for the Compromise Measures with the gallant Davis on the stump on the extreme Southern side. We have advices to the effect that Mississippi is not quite ready to embark in a crusade against the Union in order to gratify the leader of the rifle brigade in the Battle of Buena Vista."

A VOICE FROM MARYLAND.—The Cambridge (Md.) Intelligencer published in one of the largest slaveholding counties in the State—Dorchester—contains a call for a public meeting at the Court House, on Monday, the 19th inst., "for the purpose of condemning the disunion policy of certain Southern States, and expressing a devotion and a determination to sustain Mr. LINCOLN in the Administration of the Government."

RETURNING REASON.—The latest Southern dispatches show signs of returning good sense in the Cotton States. Gov. AIKEN, the heaviest slaveholder in South Carolina, has come out against secession. Mr. STEPHENS, of Georgia, has made a powerful and telling speech against the fire-eaters. Other indications show that the insane furor is abating.

SOUND.—Postmaster General HOLT has adopted a short and sensible policy towards the disunion Postmasters in the South who resign their offices. He informs them that if they will name successors, who will give the usual securities to the department, they will be accepted, and business permitted to go on as before. Otherwise, the offices will be discontinued.

TEXAS ELECTION.—The Galveston Civilian says BRECKINRIDGE'S majority over BELL and DOUGLAS combined will be over 30,000. Every county, as far as heard from, gives BRECKINRIDGE a majority. He received every vote cast in Brazos County.

Spirit of the Secessionists.

From the N. Y. Tribune.

Some of the speeches in the Legislature of South Carolina, betray a degree of impatience and a lack of confidence, hardly consistent with the solemnity of founding a new nation. Thus on the question of changing the day of the assembling of the State Convention, from the second Monday in January to the 17th of December, it was urged that, unless South Carolina made haste to take the lead, the other cotton States might not be willing to secede at all. Mr. Winsmith was even more frank in the expression of his distrust; "he was opposed to sending commissioners to other States, for the experiences of South Carolina had not been very satisfactory on that particular.

Mr. Aldrich said the object in hastening the Convention "was to keep the South up to the work; to bring her sister States to where we stand." This evinces a serious doubt to the minds of the speakers as to the co-operation of the other States, unless South Carolina can hurry them into secession against their own calmer judgment.

Mr. Aldrich also avowed that the election of Lincoln is not the cause, but merely the pretext, for these proceedings. "The people," he said, "have been educated for this movement from the time of '28 up to the present moment." "There is no hot haste in this matter. The resolutions on our State books have proclaimed aloud for years and years that South Carolina is ready."—"Why, sir, we have been waiting for this 25 years. Are we to go through another 25 years, job?"

According to this, a conspiracy to dissolve the Union has existed in South Carolina for a quarter of a century, and its leaders are determined now to realize their long cherished project.

Meeting of Bank Presidents.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.

The Bank Presidents meet at noon to-day to consider the propriety of suspension.

The Late Sir Charles Napier.

This celebrated English Admiral died on the 6th of November. Sir Charles Napier was the eldest son of the Hon. Charles Napier, of Merchistounhall county, Sterling, and was born on the 6th of March, 1786; entered the navy the 1st of November, 1799, as a first-class volunteer on board the Martin sloop, employed in the North sea. In 1802 he went to the Mediterranean, where he became a midshipman. In 1805 he was made lieutenant. In 1807 he was made commander. In 1809 he had risen to the rank of captain of the fleet, and succeeded in taking Fort Edward, Martinique. In the following year, he served as a volunteer in the peninsula, and distinguished himself in several battles. In 1811 he was engaged in the expedition fitted out in Sicily, and gained great credit by the capture of the island of Ponza. For this achievement he was created Cavaliere de Ponza by the King of the Two Sicilies. Afterward, he commanded the frigate Galatea, and acquired considerable notoriety by the experiments he made in navigating the vessel by means of stern wheels; he was also among the first promoters of steam navigation. In 1833 he resigned his command, and entered the service of Don Pedro as admiral, and distinguished himself for his exertions to secure the accession of Queen Donna Maria, particularly by his victory off Cape St. Vincent, for which he was created by Don Pedro, Vizconde de Cabo de San Vicuente.

After the expulsion of Don Miguel from Portugal, Sir Charles Napier returned to England, and, in 1840 resumed active service. He bore a prominent part, as second in command under Admiral Stopford, in the proceedings against Mehemet Ali and Ibrahim Pacha, upon the coast of Syria, and in the treaty shortly after concluded with the former. For these services he received the honor of knighthood, and was presented with the thanks of parliament, together with orders from the sovereigns of Russia, Austria and Prussia. In 1841, he was returned to Parliament, and showed himself a zealous whig, and attracted considerable notice by his strenuous efforts to increase the efficiency of the navy. Sir Charles Napier is the author of "An Account of the War between Don Pedro and Don Miguel," (1840); and of "The War in Syria," (1842), besides a number of pamphlets on naval architecture. He has also within the last few years published a number of letters and pamphlets on the state of the English navy, in which he seeks to show that this department is wofully mismanaged, and that England is liable at any moment to fall a prey to French, Russian, or American rapacity. He was marked by great originality and force of character, and was one of the most crotchety and unpopular of men.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

The President and Vice President Elect in Chicago.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday morning, contains the following interesting announcement:

"THE PRESIDENT ELECT.—Hon. Abraham Lincoln and lady arrived in town last evening, and took rooms at the Tremont House. It is the first visit of Mr. Lincoln to this city since May last, previous to his nomination. His present visit is made on matters of private business, and the absence of all public demonstration will best befit the occasion, in a city where Mr. Lincoln in private life and private professional duties has won hosts of warm friends, and nothing formal is needed to attest the sincerity of the rejoicing and congratulation elicited by his elevation to the post of chief prominence in our nation. He will meet to day Hon. Hannibal Hamlin of Maine, who is to arrive here this morning, and will pass a day or two in this city."

Annual Meeting of the State Agricultural Society.

STATE AGRICULTURAL ROOMS,
Madison, Nov. 20, 1860.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society will be held at their rooms, on Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 3 o'clock P. M., at which time the annual reports of the officers will be made, and an opportunity afforded for the filing of written amendments to the Constitution. J. W. HOYT, Sec'y.

A SHAMELESS THREAT.—Among the mass of questionable dispatches from the South, is one to the effect that the secession mania is rampant in Texas, and that the popular feeling vents itself in raising the Lone Star flag, and in clamor for independence. We must say this is peculiarly graceless on the part of Texas. It was only the other day we incorporated that Commonwealth in the Union, at the cost of war, which has left its monument in a debt of more than sixty millions of dollars, upon which we are faithfully paying, and are likely to continue to pay, quite formidable interest. We also assumed the debt of the new comer; took its navy off its hands; adjusted its boundary to its satisfaction; gave it lands for its railroads, and have connived at many little business in the way of Slave-trading, among the islands and bayous about Indianola. Having secured all these advantages from its Federal relations, now to step out of the Union bearing them along, and leaving the widowed sisterhood remaining to foot the bill, smacks strongly of ingratitude; and, we repeat, Texas, in merely proposing such a course, ought to be deeply ashamed of herself. The fact casts suspicion upon her motives in originally seeking admission in the Union. It is brief association with the rest is not to be accounted for by these selfish considerations, we shall be at a loss to reason upon it; and can only exclaim with the epitaph:

"Seeing how soon that it was done for,
We wonder what it was begun for."

—N. Y. Times.

PATIENCE AND GOOD NATURE.—A friend who lived many years in a slave State south of Virginia, who once owned a plantation and negroes there, said to us as we were writing this article: "I know the South well. I have been a citizen of the South and a slaveholder, and am sure that if nothing is done to increase their irritation while they are chafing under defeat, this excitement will soon subside. I have just written to a distinguished friend of mine in that section of country, whose name I must not give, to inquire what, in his opinion, will be the end of all this. His answer was, 'It will end as all such things at the South have ended; but you must let us down easy.' Patience and good nature on the part of the Northern States are all that is required to make the conclusion speedy and sure."

We may well be good-natured for we are the victorious party. We may well have patience, for we feel that we are victorious in a good cause, and have nothing to reproach ourselves with, we can wait a little while for those whose vexation is greater because they know they are in the wrong, to come gradually around to the right.

WHY THE SOUTH SHOULD SECEDE.—Mr. R. Barnwell Rhett, editor of the Charleston Mercury, in a speech delivered at Columbia on the evening of the tenth, said: "We (of the South) understand the Constitution.—We understand free government. Like all the great nations of antiquity we are slaveholders and understand free government. The North does not. They are people wrapped up in selfishness. They have no idea of free government. Their idea of free government is this, that when three men go together, the two are to rule the one; when five men go together, the three are to rule the other two; when seven men come together, the four are to rule the other three and make slaves of them. But of a Constitution of checks and balances, under which we are all free, they have no conception; and they have, therefore, flung the Constitution, by which our rights and property were guaranteed to us, to the winds, and intend to rule us by means of a vulgar Yankee majority. My friends, I am glad I am rid of them."

"ABE LINCOLN" AN INVENTOR.—We were this morning shown at the United States Patent Office the model of a steamer combining buoyant air chambers with a steamboat or other vessel, for the purpose of enabling their draught of water to be readily lessened, that they might pass over bars or throughshallow water without discharging their cargoes. This method of lifting vessels over shoals was invented by Abraham Lincoln, President elect, for which he received a patent May 22, 1849.—Wash. Star.

THE CASE OF ISAAC G. HASBROUCK VS. CITY OF MILWAUKEE.—We notice by a published decision of the Supreme Court of this State that the above cause has been decided in favor of the city. This was an important suit, growing out of the contract of the city with ABEL HAWLEY for the improvement of the Milwaukee Harbor, which contract was first assigned by said HAWLEY to C. D. BARTON, and afterwards by the heirs of said BARTON to the plaintiff HASBROUCK. The plaintiff claimed judgment in this action for a sum in the neighborhood of ninety thousand dollars, and we understand the decision to be fatal to the rights of the plaintiff to recover at all.

The case was conducted for the plaintiff by EMMONS, VAN DYKE and HAMILTON, and for the city by Messrs. LA DUE and PALMER.

GALE'S NEW PIANOS.—We yesterday saw, at the musical Repository of VAN COTT, a new piano from the factory of GALE & Co., New York, which, in many respects, is superior to the pianos now made. It is called a new scale piano, with overstrung bass string, an arrangement that gives a new roundness and brilliancy to the tone and a power not surpassed by a grand action instrument. The improvement is an important one, rendering, as it does, a piano—the price of which is $325—quite equal in quality and intensity of its note with an instrument costing double that amount.

Mr. VAN COTT has a large supply of pianos, melodeons, &c., together with an immense stock of music.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The Municipal Court was occupied all day yesterday, with the trial of U. S. Marshal LEWIS, indicted for assault and battery, in August last, on T. J. SALSMAN. The prosecution was conducted by the District Attorney, Mr. CORSON, and J. V. V. PLATTO. Mr. M. CARPENTER appeared for the defence and managed the case with his usual skill. His closing speech was able and eloquent. The case was given to the jury shortly before 5 o'clock, and at 9 P. M. they were still out, with little prospect of agreeing.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—Mrs. C. VARIAN JAMES assisted by several eminent artists, gives a concert at Albany Hall this evening. The troupe have met with great success in Detroit, and Mrs. JAMES especially is highly commended by the press of that city. We bespeak for her a good house to-night; not doubting that she will delight all who hear her.

THE "BENICIA BOY" AT MILWAUKEE.—It will be seen from an advertisement in this morning's SENTINEL, that HEENAN, the conqueror of the English champion, SAYERS, will give an exhibition at the Academy of Music in this city, on Wednesday evening next. He will be assisted by several noted pugilists and athletes.

VERY LIKE WINTER.—The clouds gathered yesterday, and soon after noon the snow began to fall as if it "meant business." By dusk the city wore a decidedly wintry aspect, every thing wearing the white livery appropriate to the season. It is rather early, yet, for autumn to leave us, and we still hope for some week or two more of mild weather, before winter fairly sets in.

"GO THOU AND DO LIKEWISE."—We learn that a gentlemen of this city to whom "Long JOHN MILLER" was indebted by note on hearing yesterday of the lamentable accident by which poor JOHN broke his leg, for the second time, sent him back his note, together with five dollars, to help him along. That was an act of true christian charity.

THE FIRST SNOW.—That great event for the boys, the first snow, arrived yesterday. Long before the ground was fairly whitened, the little fellows were out with their sleds, as if thankful for small favors, and disposed to make the best of them. As the snow thickened, their delight increased, and by nightfall they were in ecstacies.

ILLINOIS BANK BILLS.—Come on, every one of you, and bring your Illinois money—I will take it at par for clothing made in New York city, of the very best material.—Overcoats, dress coats, frock coats, and will sell the goods 25 per cent less than what they cost. CALEB WALL, the city auctioneer offers to do this. Read his new advertisement this morning.

OYSTERS, GAME AND POULTRY.—A retail store, for the sale of Oysters, Game and Poultry, has been opened on Main street, three doors north of Wisconsin. TANGLE MCCRAKEN presides over the "Monumental" department, and MYCATT dispenses the Game and Poultry. They keep nothing but the best. Call and try.

THE FIRST SLEIGH OF THE SEASON.—The merry music of the bells was heard on East Water street last evening—the first sleigh of the season, a light cutter, passing our office about half-past 7 o'clock P. M.

MESSRS. STRICKLAND & Co. wish us to state that they are taking Illinois currency at par, for goods.

ILLINOIS MONEY TAKEN AT PAR.—The undersigned will take Illinois money at par (except those banks which are discredited at Chicago) in exchange for dry goods and carpets, which he is selling cheaper than usual, having just returned from the East with a tremendous stock, which was bought at ruinous prices. To hear from, Ashland county, which will slightly increase LINCOLN'S majority. His official majority in the State will be nearly or quite TWENTY-ONE THOUSAND!

The Right of Secession.

"A wild notion has met with certain acceptance," says the N. Y. Freeman's Journal, "to the effect that the Union of these States is a sort of free-love affair, to be terminated at the will of any one of them. The discussion of this question at the present time is certain to dissipate this fallacious abstraction of State rights. Each State is independent and sovereign in regard to all that is peculiarly local to her own affairs.—But the Union, once effected, was forever as respects Federal rights. The correspondence between HAMILTON and MADISON, in regard to the proposition that New York should accept the constitution with the right to withdraw within five or seven years, is conclusive as to the understanding at the time the constitution was adopted. But, irrespective of this, the acquisitions of territory from time to time made for the United States, shows how impossible is the doctrine of voluntary secession. We purchased Florida from Spain, not for the sake of the people of Florida, but for the sake of the people of the Union. Can we permit the handful of white people now in Florida to march off with our purchase money, and our Seminole war money in their pockets? We purchased Louisiana from France, not for the sake of the people of Louisiana, but for the sake of the people of the Union. What folly to suppose that we can permit the people of Louisiana to walk away with all the money she has cost us! We engaged in a costly war with Mexico for the sake of Texas. Are we going to part with her, after assuming all her debts, at the whim of her inhabitants? If ever there was a patent absurdity it is that of contemplating a peaceable dissolution of this Union. The Union is a solemn marriage of the States, and death—death political and social, alone can dissolve the Union."

Disunion and Slavery.

The Greensboro' (Ala.) Beacon says that a lot of negroes—some twenty or thirty—were sold at Eutaw on the 29th ult., by the Sheriff. The prices brought were at least forty to fifty per cent. below the ruling rates of last winter. A fraction over $1,200—and that for a very likely fellow—was the highest price that was obtained. A very likely young woman, such as would have commanded $1,500 to $1,600 last fall, brought only a fraction over $1,000. The Beacon thinks the scarcity of money had something to do with it, but an apprehension of a dissolution of the Union had also something to do with it.

If the mere "apprehension of a dissolution" has depreciated slave property from forty to fifty per cent., what would the fact of "dissolution" do? Even the "fire-eaters" of the "Cotton States" begin to discover that slavery dies whenever the Union is dissolved. Whatever other institution of the South might survive the shock, the one for the sake of which the Federal Government is to be rent asunder would be the first to perish amidst the ruins.

The Vote of Pennsylvania.

We mentioned yesterday that full returns from Pennsylvania showed a majority for LINCOLN of ninety-two thousand six hundred and twenty-two over the "Fusion" ticket and some sixty-three thousand over all. While the aggregate vote is 18,000 short of that cast at the October election, the vote for LINCOLN is nearly seven thousand more than CURTIN received. The N. Y. Times thus remarks upon the vote of the Keystone, now the "Banner State" of the Union:

"The result is simply amazing. The entire vote is 475,000, a figure so slightly exceeding that of 1856, as to supply a just basis of comparison. The majority for Lincoln over the Fusion ticket is a majority for Lincoln than ninety-three thousand majority in 1856 was 251,163; over Buchanan over Douglas, 58,318. The majority against the Republicans in 1856 was 165,011; and we know that at least 175,000 voters who were opposed at that time to the Republicans, have united themselves to that party, and assisted in raising Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency. So extraordinary a change, embracing, as it does little less than one half the voting population of the State, has no precedent in political history. If the seal of condemnation were wanting to the record of Mr. Buchanan's Administration, it is surely affixed by this marvellous revulsion of feeling against him in his own State."

OFFICIAL RETURNS.—Trempealeau county gives LINCOLN 490 votes and DOUGLAS 134. HANCHETT'S majority for Congress is 333.

Door county gives LINCOLN 127 majority; SLOAN 150, and FINLEY, for Assembly, 197 do. Our Door county friends have nobly redeemed the promise they made us, when we were at Washington Harbor, last summer.

Shawano county gives 163 for LINCOLN and 114 for DOUGLAS. For Congress, LAFLAMBOISE has 4 majority.

All the counties in the State are now heard from, (all but six officially,) except Ashland, which polls a small vote and has given a Republican majority.

THE UNKINDEST "CUT" OF ALL.—Even HARPER'S publications are now "cut" by the South. The Savannah, Ga., News of the 10th says:

"We learn that on yesterday all the bookhouses in this city, who have heretofore sold Harper's Weekly and Monthly publications, closed their accounts with the publishers, and returned the copies on hand. The Weekly opened with a biographical sketch and full length portrait of Abe Lincoln, the Illustrious rail-splitter.

The portrait and sketch of LINCOLN did the business for HARPER. All its past devotion to the South was insufficient to atone for so gross an indignity.

THE LONDON JOURNALS teem with reports of murder. The London Times proclaims that murder is the principal topic of the day; its columns are literally filled with stories of crime. Six instances have recently been brought before the English public; in two of these the murderers were taken red-handed; in two others, suspected persons have been committed for trial; in the remaining two, the assassins are still undiscovered; justice has in the last cases been absolutely baffled by the subtlety, or fortune of the criminals. The journals comment on this state of affairs sadly, and speak of destruction of morals and the debasement of the national character.

The Difficulties in the Way of Secession.

From the New York World.

We have ventured to predict that one great obstacle in the way of the secession movement would be the incompetency of the vapory and hot-headed politicians who now occupy the ear and eye of the nation, to arrange those practical details which, in the case of a State setting up for itself, require the patient and intelligent supervision of men possessing a thorough knowledge of the business of the world and of affairs of state—men of executive capacity, with more fondness for the figures of mathematics than for the figures of speech. This is a class who are now in the background, biding their time, but without whose help the men now conspicuous cannot so much as get into secession nor get out of it.

To practical men of this class, considerations like the following, urged by the Post last evening, will have some weight:

"A more monstrous and absurd doctrine than that of the right of any State at its pleasure to secede from the Union has never been put forth. The Government in such case would indeed be a rope of sand. According to this dogma, Cuba, after we shall have paid $200,000,000 for her purchase, as a State may at once secede, and leave the United States treasury to place that small item to the account of 'profit and loss.' Texas, when she came into the Union, after we had paid many millions to discharge her debts, and other millions to go into her coffers, was and is entirely at liberty to secede with the booty. Each and all of the States carved out of the Louisiana purchase, for we also paid an immense sum, may which do the like.

"So, too, States in which the largest amount of public property may be situated may at any time secede with that property. When the Pacific railroad shall have been constructed, at an expense of countless millions, paid from the common treasury, the two or three States through which it will run may decamp with the plunder and plant a custom house on the site of our store-houses. Vermont, New Hampshire, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and the other inland States, which will have contributed to these great disbursements, and in which States hardly a dollar of the public treasure is ever expended, are to look quietly and approvingly on the exodus of those which have been thus purchased and enriched at their expense, and to recognize the right of each of them to secede and take the property with them.

"Now, this right of secession, if it exist at all, is an absolute one, and a State has as much right to exercise it at one time as at another. If she may secede at will, she may do so in anticipation of war or in time of war. If she can secede when she chooses, she owes no allegiance to the Government an hour after she decides to secede, but will then be just as independent of the Government as she is of any nation. In the midst of war, then, it will be the right of any State not only to desert our own Government, but at the same time to ally herself to the enemy.

"The Government, under such a principle, could not have twenty-four hours of assured existence. Neither other nations, nor its own citizens, could have confidence in its permanence. It would lack the vital principle of existence, because it would wholly lack credit. Nobody would lend it a dollar, for nobody would be sure that it would hold together long enough to pay a six months' loan, to say nothing of losses for long terms of years. The public faith, on which alone all who deal with Governments can repose, would be utterly lacking. Business could have no security or stability, for men would not embark either their industry or their capital, unless under the shelter of laws and institutions not liable to change."

"What is It?"

The following from a New York paper is worthy of more than a hasty reading:

"Barnum attracts the public eye to his monstrosity by a question which may well apply to the Wall street monster of the present hour.

A financial panic built on a political crisis! Did ever imagination take fright at so unsubstantial a bugaboo? And yet, sensible men, when there are no ghosts of panic to scare them, now look to Wall street as if live bears were the only passengers, and dead bulls the only freight for our best railroads.

But really, 'what is it?' One would think when the fall business of the North and West, which begins in September and substantially closes in October, is well over, as it now is, with more profit and less pressure on the money market than has been known for ten years, we need not be alarmed at our success!—especially now that the West is sending us its surplus of products, which, being shipped to a good market in Europe, will soon bring back the gold!—When the South has stopped buying too many negroes, at too high prices, with a fine crop of cotton on hand, commanding good prices at home and abroad, possessing the disposition to pay their debts as nine out of ten at the South do, at this moment, one must be at a loss for materials out of which to scare up a panic, when he attempts to hatch it out of the brains of disappointed fire eaters or hungry bears, who have been starving for a twelve-month, and now are gorging themselves, while everybody inquires, 'What is it?'"

A GOOD EXAMPLE TO POSTMASTERS.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, says:

"A fact was communicated to me yesterday of a character so unprecedented in the political annals of this city, and so creditable to the distinguished gentleman who was its author, that it deserves to be published and commended in every paper of every party in the country. It is the first instance in this city where a high Federal officer has flatly refused to permit his clerks to be assessed for political purposes. I allude to the postmaster, Gen. Dix.

At the usual time for calling upon the clerks in the post-office, for the payment of the usual per centage of their salary for the party, and when the person selected as the tax-gatherer appeared at the office for that purpose, he was informed by the General that he would not permit the assessment of a single cent to be made upon a single clerk for any such object; that the clerks were the hardest worked and poorest paid of any employes of the Government, and that it was an outrage to exact from their small pittance means to defray the expenses of the campaign. He was opposed to the practice in toto, and would not allow it to be enforced. More than that, he postmaster of New York, he would not submit to any political assessment, believing the practice to be subversive of the public interest; but as Mr. Dix, a private citizen, he would cheerfully give the committee five hundred dollars, which he did. The thanks of every government clerk in the country are due to Gen. Dix for this bold and manly act in their behalf. It is worthy the emulation of every postmaster and collector of customs in the United States, and especially deserving the heartiest commendation of the press."

MISSISSIPPI.—The Vicksburg Whig continues to fight steadily for the Union, and insists that Mississippi, if the question were submitted to her, would condemn disunion schemes by 25,000 majority:

"These questions, it says, of Union and disunion, taxations and conventions, peace and war, secession and revolution, are not party issues,—they affect every citizen alike; and while Mississippi may vote for a candidate for President because he is a Democrat, it by no means follows that her people will precipitate themselves into a civil war, because he is defeated. Again we say, there need be no fear of Mississippi. She will vote down disunion, whenever the factionists make the issue, by an overwhelming majority. Let them make the issue, then, if they dare."

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.—The chivalry of South Carolina, it would seem, are not without influential sympathizers in the Empire City. The telegraph announces that "a distinguished officer" of New York has offered Gov. Gist to enlist under Palmetto flag "at the head of twelve hundred fighting New-Yorkers." The name of the officer is not given, but another dispatch describes him as "a prominent New York Captain." This points directly to Marshal Rynders as the only prominent "Captain" among us who could be capable of any such piece of treasonable folly. The fact that the census has been finished, and that the Slave-trade has, of late, been seriously interfered with at this point, together with the near approach of March, 1861,—must naturally make the illustrious Captain desirous of securing a new field of profitable operations. Let South Carolina only relieve our City of his presence, and the evils of her secession will not be without, at least, one item of compensation.—N. Y. Times.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE OF ILLINOIS.—The Chicago Journal of Wednesday last contains the following:

"TOO FAST.—Somebody has sent by telegraph to the East the "official vote of Illinois," making Lincoln's majority over Douglas 11,996, and over all 4,878.

"These figures are doubtless near the result, but the "official vote" has not as yet been all received at the Secretary of State's office, five or six counties yet remaining to be officially returned."

BLOODY AFFRAY AT AN IRISH FUNERAL.—The Detroit Free Press gives the following particulars of a bloody affray which took place near that city on Sunday afternoon last, and resulted in the killing of one man, and the wounding seriously, if not fatally, of four or five others:

"It seems that a Mr. Cronan, who formerly resided about ten miles from the city, on what is known as the Centre Line Road, died a few days since, and was buried on Sunday afternoon at a small burying ground near the place of disturbance. His son, John Cronan, who resides in Detroit, with several of his companions, male and female, had been to the funeral, and were returning.—Two of this party, John Bordeaux and Tim Sullahan, were riding ahead of the others in a single buggy. When they reached the junction of the Centre Line Road with the Gratiot Road, about three miles from the city, they stopped at the house of a German named Anthony Sellmann, a harness-maker, who also keeps a small saloon, and in a boisterous manner demanded that he should treat them. Sellmann replied that they might have what liquor they wanted if they had any money to pay for it. At this one of them got a glass of beer and with it struck Sellman in the face, inflicting a bad wound. Several Germans who were present interfered to defend Sellmann, and the assailants were ejected from the house.

Just at this juncture the rest of the funeral party came up and jumped from the vehicles to assist their comrades, and a general row ensued, in which clubs, fence-rails, cord wood, stones and every other species of weapon that could be seized upon were used. Having the superiority in numbers, and being reckless from frequent indulgence in strong drink, the assailants soon gained the victory, leaving the German's badly beaten.

A man named Casper Schwartz, who is said to be a very quiet, peaceable man, and who was only present as a spectator, was struck over the head with a rail, inflicting a horrid gash, and again across his back. He died yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, from the effects of his injuries. He leaves a wife and seven small children.

Peter Nuremberg, an inoffensive old man, was knocked down and very badly bruised. His recovery is still considered a matter of grave doubt.

John Eagle and Joseph Theisen, both Germans, were beaten in a shameful manner.

Having apparently satisfied their belligerent spirits the party drove on. After proceeding a short distance they met a man on the road, whom they hailed with the query, 'Are you another G—d d—d Dutchman?' to which the man replied that he spoke German sometimes, when two of the rowdies jumped out and knocked him down. This man was a Belgian, but our reporter was unable to obtain his name.

Eight of the parties engaged in this brutal assault have been arrested and confined to await their trial. Three of them have been identified as the murderers of SCHWARTZ and NUREMBERG. Of the evidence taken taken before the Justice, the Free Press says:

"Enough, however, is given to characterize this as one of the most brutal and unjustifiable outrages that has come to our knowledge in this vicinity for years. The examination should be most thorough and searching, and the guilty parties, whoever they may be, held to a most rigid and severe accountability. The sooner that such desperate lawlessness—which, it is to be regretted, is growing in our midst—is checked, the better for our morals and our reputation."

THE GREAT HOLLAND REMEDY—BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous sick headache, will find in Berhave's Holland Bitters, a sure, safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. THE NEW AMERICAN WATCH!
Made at Waltham, Mass.

IN ORDER TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS of gentlemen who prefer a thinner Watch than those usually made by us, we have lately issued a new style of Watch on the three-quarter plate model, especially designed for this purpose.

In establishing this new series, it has also been our design to produce a Watch in every way superior to the best and highest priced products of the most reputable of English and Swiss manufacturers; and no labor or expense has been spared to this end.

In all respects of fine and durable material, of external and internal finish, of accurate compensation and adjustment, of mathematically just proportions, and of practical results, our new three-quarter plate Watch challenges comparison with any in the world.

The following named gentlemen may be referred to in relation to these Watches:

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Me.,	John G. Saxe, Vermont.
N. P. Willis, New York,	Hon. N. P. Banks, Mass.
Horace Greeley,	Frank Leslie,
Cyrus W. Field, New York.	Wm. H. Cary, N. York,
Paul Morphy, New Orleans,	Norman Wiard, Wis.
Dr. J. Marion Sims,	Prof. Bartlett, West Pt.
Lieut. H. A. Wise, U.S.N.,	Col. W. J. Hardee, U.S.A.
S. I. Prime, D.D., Wh't Pl's,	Wilson G. Hunt, N. York,
Gen. G. P. Morris, N. York,	Peter Cooper, N. York.

CAUTION—As our Watch is now extensively counterfeited by foreign manufacturers, we have to inform the public that no watch is of our production which is not accompanied by a certificate of genuineness, bearing the number of the watch, and signed by our Treasurer, B. E. Robbins, or by our predecessors, Appleton, Tracy & Co.

As these watches are for sale by Jewelers generally throughout the Union, the American Watch Company do not solicit orders for single watches.

TRODDEN FLOWERS.

BY ALFRED TENNYSON.

There are some hearts that, like the living vine,
Cling to unlikely roots and raise proud towers,
Spirits that suffer and do not repine,
Patient and sweet as lowly trodden flowers
That from the passer's heel arise,
And give back odorous breath instead of sighs.

But there are other hearts that will not feel
The lowly love that haunts their eyes and ears;
That wound fond faith with anger worse than steel,
And one cold sprig of new life tears.
O, Nature! shall it ever be thy will
In things with good to mingle good and ill?

Why should the hearty foot of sorrow press
The willing heart of uncomplaining love—
Meek charity, that shrinks not from distress,
Gentleness does her tyrants so reprove—
Though virtue weep forever and lament,
Will one hard heart learn turn to her and relent?

Why should the road be broken that will bend,
And they that dry the tears in other's eyes
Feel their own anguish swelling without end,
Their summer darkened, with the smoke of sighs?
Sure, love to some fair Eden of his own
Will flee at last and leave us here alone.

Love weepeth always; weepeth for the past,
For woes that are, for woes that may betide;
Why should not hard ambition weep at last,
Envy and hatred, avarice and pride?
Fate whispers sorrow ever is your lot,
They would be rebels—love rebels not.

A Few Items from Springfield.

From the Chicago Tribune, Nov. 17.

We are enabled to assure Mr Lincoln's friends who are alarmed lest he should send out an address in which the standard of the party would be lowered, for the purpose of coaxing the secessionists into an abatement of their threats against the integrity of the Union, that he will do no such foolish thing, and we can assure those foolish gentlemen who are entreating him to declare himself anew, that they are misusing their time—Mr. Lincoln is not the President elect. That he is the choice of the people is clear; but until the electors meet in their respective States and choose him according to the constitution, and the forms of law, he is no more than any other private citizen. In the meantime all men desirous of knowing his opinions upon matters of current interest, will find them clearly and unequivocally set forth in his many speeches. As those opinions were deliberately formed, there is no occasion to fear that Mr. Lincoln will change them, at least until their untenableness is proved.

There is, of course, a general desire to know how the President elect is affected by the rub-a-dubbing now coming up from the Southern States. A gentleman who talked with him on the secession question, only a day or two ago, represents to us that he is cautious in his expressions, but unquestionably firm in his belief that the laws should be upheld. He does not, if he is correctly reported, believe that any of the States will, when the question is practically presented to them, decide to go off and organize a Confederacy in which slave holding and slave trade are the bonds of union. He thinks the economical objections to such a scheme will, if the returning patriotism of the people does not, before these objections come home with their greatest weight, bring the conservatives into power. He is so confident of the justness of his views, that he cannot see how, after his policy is developed, the disunionists can work their people up to the point of consummating their threatened treason; and he is not without a certain reliance that the Administration now in power will prevent irreparable mischief, down to the close of its term. He is reticent, moderate, calm. Before he acts or makes any public declarations, he will know the ground upon which he stands, the full extent of the disaffection, and the temper of those upon whom he must depend for carrying out the policy which he will inaugurate. That he will try all methods of conciliation consistent with his sense of right and his obligations to the country, we have no doubt. If these are of no avail, his supporters know that they have in him a leader who will not fail, at the proper time and in the proper manner, to use all the means at his command to ensure respect for the obligations into which the States have entered.

The multitude of conjectures which have been made in regard to the New Cabinet, are unauthorized by anything that Mr. Lincoln has said in public or private. We are advised that he has not decided who his Constitutional advisers shall be. We take it, however, that the wise-acres who labor under the delusion that Lincoln is Douglas, and that his advisers must be those whom Douglas would have called to his aid, will be disappointed when the names of the Secretaries are announced. The point of difficulty in selecting, is to find men in the South upon whom the honor of Secretaryship may be safely conferred, and who are at the same time of sufficient consideration at home to give character and strength to the new administration in the slave States. We do not doubt that the difficulty will be surmounted The to-be-formed Union party of the South will afford abundant material out of which Secretaries and all the minor officers may be made.

It is an unfortunate commentary upon the secedera' course, the fact that anonymous and threatening letters, addressed to Mr. Lincoln, are thought to be necessary to support it. Of these he is daily in receipt of perhaps a dozen—each atrocious. Death is the last of the ills with which he is threatened. Death, preceded by the torture, and followed by the pains of fire and brimstone, is the least with which he can be excused. These only excite contempt in him to whom they are addressed. Though coming from a hundred different parts of the South, they agree in one thing—that there is an organized band or brotherhood, every member of which takes an oath to compass the President's death. The letters are evidence of nothing except the hate and impotent malice of those who write them; but their assertion that a new order has sprung up in the South, unfortunately has confirmation from other sources more reputable and creditable. Men who know Abraham Lincoln would not spend their time in inditing such stuff. But it is tolerable with what missives of another sort contain. These latter, in the text and pen and ink sketches, seem to be bent to illustrate some propensity for the amalgamation of the races with which it is thought by the South that Honest Old Abe is afflicted. They are numerous and disgusting.

Office-seekers will be interested in knowing that no place, high or low, has been promised to any man—that the fattest slices as well as the leanest bits are all on the platter. It is Mr. Lincoln's habit to tell all who approach him with petitions for place that he cannot do anything for them. "I am not yet President elect, and if I were, until my advisers are about me, and something besides the distribution of places is agreed upon, I must continue to say No." Such we believe, is the language he holds to all who come.

In all the above, which comes to us at second hand, there may be errors, to be by-and-by corrected. But we have written what is told, upon authority which we do not question. Our readers will agree with us, that Mr. Lincoln starts off as becomes a cautious, sensible and patriotic man.

QUININE TONIC
BITTERS.
The Best Aromatic Tonic ever Offered to the Public.
RECOMMENDED BY THE FACULTY FOR ITS Superior Medicinal Qualities.
THIS ELEGANT COMPOUND, WHICH has secured the confidence and endorsement of most of the leading Physicians of New England, is a palatable and efficient tonic or Quinine, containing all the peculiar virtues of CINCHONA BARK, carefully combined with various aromatics and stimulants, and cannot fail to meet the wants of the debilitated.
It is a mistake to think the stomach, incapable of digesting solid food, requires a non-nutritious fluid in dyspepsia, as anæsthetics and invigorating to the digestive and nervous systems after prostrating diseases; and in fact in all cases of, or attended complaints, this aid is invaluable.
For diarrhœa, dysentery and cholera morbus, the public may rest assured there is no one to be any better general remedy.
One of the very best Physicians in Boston has said: "I think it the greatest discovery in Medicine that has been offered to the public."
Give it a trial as well as the Doctor, and be convinced that all may say concerning its superior merits

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov 21.

The Message will be presented to Congress on the third day of the Session. Advance copies will be sent North as far as Richmond, Boston, and South as for as Richmond.

A Tribune despatch says Judge Greenwood, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has returned from a trip to Arkansas. He says that three-fourths of the people are opposed to any disunion movement until some unconstitutional act has been committed justifying resistance.

A Herald despatch says that Sen. Chandler does not desire a seat in Lincoln's Cabinet, also that Secretary Thompson had a free consultation with Mr. Corwin as to the measures contemplated by the present and coming administration to avert the impending danger.

Information has been received there that nineteen twentieths of the large slave holders of the cotton States, who do not however compose a tenth of the voters there, deprecate the secession movement.

The District of Columbia Banks suspended specie payment to-day: There is no panic.

The father of Gen. Walbridge, of Chicago, died this morning after a suffering illness of several weeks.

The Postmaster General to-day ordered the envelopes embossed with the one cent stamp from a newly executed die representing the head of Franklin, to be used for circulars and drop letters. Letter envelopes will also be prepared with a one cent stamp in juxtaposition with the three cent stamp, to facilitate the necessary prepayment of carriers' fees on letters taken from the lamp post boxes or other stations in cities to the post office for transportation by mail. These envelopes will be ordered both ruled and unruled.

Reported Troubles in Kansas.

WARSAW, Mo., Nov. 21.

A messenger reached here to-day bringing the following despatch, which has been forwarded to the Administration at Washington:

CLINTON, Mo., Nov. 21.

The Abolitionists with arms newly imported from Boston or the East, under command of Captain Montgomery, numbering from 300 to 500 and increasing in numbers, have attacked Fort Scott, Kansas, broken up the Court, compelling myself and all the officers of the United States District Court, to fly for our lives. They have taken the towns on the Missouri line, the Fort Scott Land office, &c. They intend to invade Missouri. J. WILLIAMS,

U. S. Judge of the Third Judicial District.

A military company will be organized in this town to-morrow to aid in the suppression of this outbreak.

At a meeting of the citizens of Clinton, Henry county, Mo., to-day, it was resolved to raise a volunteer company to defend their homes, and if necessary the western border of their State, and a committee was appointed to wait on the Governor of Missouri, and lay the facts before him, and request a supply of arms.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

The steamships Empire City and Bienville, from New Orleans and Havana, have arrived. No news.

The Tribune reports that a colored fugitive named John Thomas, was kidnapped from this city to Louisville, on a power of attorney from his owner, Mr. Winter.

Arrival of the Pony Express.

FT. KEARNY, Nov. 22—3 P. M.

The Pony Express which left San Francisco on the evening of the 10th passed here at 4 o'clock this morning, but left no dispatches for the Associated press. The wind here is east of north and blowing a gale accompanied with fine dry snow. The mercury marks 29 deg. The few Pike's Peakers who are now on the road in this vicinity, have pitched their tents to await the abatement of the storm.

The Panic in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21—3 P. N.

It is reported that several produce houses have suspended to day.

Meetings are being held in Texas, calling on the Governor to convene the Legislature to consider the proper method of vindicating the rights and honor of Texas.

The Letter to Gov. Banks.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.

A Letter was given to Gov. Banks and Lady last night by the citizens of Boston.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

The Kansas Troubles.

WARSAW, Mo., Nov., 22—9 P. M.

The mass meeting held here to-day for the purpose of organizing a military company to go, if necessary, to aid our brethren in the border. Resolutions were passed, and among them were the following:

Resolved, That we do not desire in any way to interfere with Kansas Territory, or its citizens whilst they confine themselves to their own soil, but we owe to the citizens of our own State a duty when assailed by a band of midnight assassins which we pledge ourselves to perform.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, the President should at once take such decided and prompt action in the enforcement of laws and suppression of outlaws as the exigency of the times demand, and that it is the duty of the Governor of Missouri, at once, to send men and arms along to our Western border to protect our citizens and enforce our laws.

Various committees were appointed, when the meeting adjourned till next Saturday.—The following handbill is now circulating that county:

TO ARMS!

WARSAW, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

Our State has been invaded, our friends murdered by a band of Abolitionists from Kansas, under lead of Montgomery. Fort Scott has been taken by them, Circuit Court has been broken up, and some of the Grand Jury and citizens murdered! Missouri is threatened! A military company is to be formed at Warsaw on Saturday next! Let the people come in en masse! Our country is in danger! Rally! Rally! Let us prepare to defend our homes!

[Signed,

D. C. BALLOU,
MARK H. MEANS,
JAS ATKINSON,
D. F. ALEXANDER,
JAS. E. BARKLEY,
Committee.

Col. Roberts, of Vernon, passed Osceola yesterday, as a messenger to the Governor for aid. It was rumored on the streets today, but since denied, that Ball's Mills, in Vernon, had been burned by Montgomery. Montgomery declares that he intends carrying on the war until he frees every negro in Southwestern Missouri.

Large quantities of guns, revolvers, outlasses, and other war implements have been shipped to Kansas as goods for the sufferers. They were sent from the East.

Unless the President sends out troops to take and hang Montgomery and his men we may expect many months of reign of terror on the border.

Destructive Fires.

CONCORD, N H., Nov. 22—9 P. M.

The fire at Meredith bridge, Laconia, yesterday morning, destroyed 35 buildings, including four brick blocks. The total loss is $125,000; insurance $80,000. Many families are left destitute and homeless.

ALBANY, Ga., Nov. 22—9 P. M.

A fire occurred here on the 19th inst., destroying Shaw's carriage repository; Hill, Wright & Marshall's carriage shop, and two brick stores, occupied by Grass & Bridenbach. Loss over insurance, $3,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

The President and Vice President at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin arrived in this city this morning, and was presented to Mr Lincoln, Geo. W. Gage, of Vermont, performing the ceremony. This forenoon the President and Vice President elect, and members of the party, visited the Wigwam and the new Post Office. This afternoon they have been closeted, attending to business of a private nature. To-morrow they have a public reception at the Tremont House. Mr. Hamlin and Senator Trumbull leave Saturday morning for Washington, the former going direct and the latter via New York. There are several politicians here from different parts of the Union, none however of any prominence.

Democratic Convention Called.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—9 P. M.

The Daily Capital City Fact, the central organ of the National Democracy, this afternoon publishes a call, signed by Geo. Fries, Chairman of the State Central Committee, for a State Convention of the party, to be held in this city, on the 8th of January next.

Matters in Georgia.

MILLEDGEVILLE, GA. Nov. 21.

Gov. Brown, in a special message, in view of the election of Lincoln, and to promote a union of sentiment in the State, incidentally advises the Legislature to elect Electors on Saturday, which was adopted. R. Barnwell Rhett, E. Ruffin and General Pillow, have been invited to seats on the floor of the Senate.

Ex-Gov. McDonald is quite feeble at Marietta, and could not go to Milledgeville to vote as a Breckinridge Elector, if the Legislature should elect him.

It is probable that the Legislature will take a recess after the 1st of December—some think sine die, others think to a fixed time, and others subject to a call of the Governor.

There was a killing frost at Augusta this morning.

The Railroad Convention adjourned to December 3d, without action.

Trouble in the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

The Washington correspondent of the Commercial telegraphs that the city is alive with rumors of grave disagreements in the Cabinet. The President maintains the illegality of secession, as well as its impolicy, and has resolved to earnestly rebuke it.—Secretaries Cobb and Thompson threaten to resign unless he suppresses the condemnation of the secessionists proceedings. Postmaster Holt, to some extent, dissents from the President's position, but it is doubtful whether he will carry his opposition so far as to resign in case the President adheres to to his sentiments.

Matters in Virginia.

WHEELING, Va., Nov. 22—9 P. M.

The banks of this city suspended specie payment this morning.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov 22—9 P. M.

The branches of the Virginia Bank at Norfolk and Portsmouth have suspended specie payment. The Farmers Bank of Norfolk has also suspended.

Thanksgiving in Missouri.

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

The Governor has appointed Thursday, Nov. 29th, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer throughout the State of Missouri.

BOSTON, Nov. 22—9 P. M.

No serious results have yet attended the financial pressure, and remittences from the hottest parts of the South continue to come in as usual.

The statements of repudiation by Southern creditors are untrue, so far as this city is concerned. Should the emergency require it, the Directors of all the Boston Banks propose to discount to the amount of $5,000,000, which will speedily make money easy in this city.

Hoop and Rattan Machine!!

THE SUBSCRIBER HAS SUCCEEDED in producing Machines for the purpose of splitting and dressing Hoops. The principles developed in the Machines are admired by mechanics for simplicity, and durability, as well as the light power required to operate them, in consequence of the nonjarring or vibrating motion of the Splitting Knife applied to opening the pole, with a perfect and simple arrangement for entering it, and requiring no hammering or splitting for the first keg to large hogshead hoops. And is equally well adapted to splitting Rattans, Oziers, Willows and Basket Stuff. The machines have received the highest premiums at the late Fairs at Boston and Baltimore.

Parties wanting Machines we would refer to Mr. P. A. BASSET, in Baraboo, Wis., who has a mill in operation.

MONETARY.

THURSDAY P. M., Nov. 22, 1860.

Money matters were quiet to-day, rather than excited. The distrust with regard to Illinois currency is gradually giving place to more confidence in its intrinsic worth, and holders do not seem inclined to submit to any sacrifice to get rid of it. Most of our merchants are now taking it at par for goods. The discount at the banks on all except the bills of those banks that have been thrown out at Chicago, remains at 8 ⅜ cent. Currency is becoming more plentiful, and the only respect in which the market is now stringent is the short supply of exchange. The nominal rate is 2 ⅜ cent. premium, but the banks are only selling to customers in cases of very urgent necessity. Outside parties have to pay any rates that the brokers choose to demand.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.

We have the following money and stock report by elegraph from New York to-day:

In the money market a much calmer feeling prevails, and though rates are unchanged there is more ease. Sterling exchange opened quiet, but a little firmer. Stocks more active and in many instances much better. The feeling in the street has improved decidedly. The association of banks yesterday agreed to issue certificates of deposit in denominations of $5,000, and $10,000, bearing 7 ⅜ cent. interest, and based on bills receivable, U. S. stocks, treasury notes, or stocks of the State of New York; said certificates not to exceed five million dollars, and to be used in the settlement of balances of the Clearing House, for 30 days, and to be received by eastern banks daily in such a proportion as they bear to the aggregate amount of the debit balances paid at the Clearance House. They also resolved that the specie in all the banks, amounting to about twenty million dollars, be treated as common funds for mutual aid and protection, in view of liberal expansion. Also, that after the first of February next every bank in the association shall have at all times an amount of specie equal to one-fourth of its net liabilities, and any bank failing below that proportion shall not make loans or discounts until its position is so established.

SUSPENDED SPECIE PAYMENT.

A despatch from Wheeling, Va., to-day, states that the Banks in that city suspended specie payment this morning. They are in unbounded confidence and will keep their notes good currency.

WISCONSIN BANKS AND THEIR SECURITIES.

The State Journal of Wednesday contains the following definite and satisfactory information, compiled from the forthcoming report of our Bank Comptroller, as to the banking securities in this State. We fully concur in the opinion of the Journal that our Wisconsin currency is abundantly secured, and that no one should part with Wisconsin bank bills at a shave:

The fact that they are receivable for all State dues and taxes will, of itself, keep this currency at par:

From the advance sheets of the forthcoming report of the State Bank Comptroller, we are enabled to give our readers the following facts in relation to the condition of the Wisconsin banks on the 1st day of October last. The whole amount of circulating notes outstanding notes was $4,451,572, which was secured by public stocks at par value, and specie, as follows:

Wisconsin,	6 per cent		$160,000 00
Minnesota,	5 do		73,000 00
California,	6 do		293,000 00

			$4,851,560 00

			$5,000,000 00

The increase of securities during the year was $57,208 50; the increase of outstanding circulation during the same period was $48,401. The present Bank Comptroller, since his entrance upon the duties of his office, has spared no pains to get rid of Virginia and Missouri stocks, and to supply their place with other securities. The following table shows the increase and decrease in the several kinds of securities, during the 12 months prior to October 1st:

The increase has been in the following securities:

Minnesota,	5	per cent	$73,000 00
California,	6	do	293,000 00
Georgia,	6	do	8,000 00

Illinois,	6	do	30,500 00
Pennsylvania	5	do	9,000 00
Specie,			48,951 50
			$733,451 50
			$57,208 50

Since this report, the Comptroller has made a call on the banks for additional securities, which has been promptly responded to, and the aggregate security has thus been considerably increased.

Just now our currency is somewhat depreciated in New York. But there is no occasion for panic. The depression is merely temporary. The people have in Mr. Van Steenwyk as banks and capable an officer to watch over their interest in this matter as has ever received their confidence. The State Treasurer will, it is understood, receive Wisconsin currency as usual, at par, in payment for taxes. Under these circumstances there can be no doubt but Wisconsin money will continue good.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

The Tribune says in regard to yesterday's doings:

The stagnation in financial circles to-day has been if anything more marked than during any time for the past week. The banks have been more indisposed to sell exchange and some of them utterly refuse to accommodate on any terms. The reason given is that they have none and are making some or next to none. The rates to customers are 3@6 ⅜ cent. and a few charge 10. The street rates are 8@10 per cent. The high price of exchange, pork, paper, &c., must ere long relieve the market, though no one need look for low rates for some time to come.

Gold, buying at 5@8 per cent., selling 10 premium. The demand to-day has fallen off very considerably.

MONEY MARKET AT ST. LOUIS.

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday says:

There was a much better feeling among the moneyed men to-day, with regard to an early reaction in business. The greatest drawback to ease among the bankers is the lack of a supply of exchange. Few of the chief red banks had any supply at all, and none were drawing on New Orleans, nor even on the East to outsiders. The brokers charged for the small drafts they sold on the East 1½@2 ⅜ cent. premium. The banks drew small sums for their customers at 1½ prem. on the East.

Gold was not sold at any price; some parties would have paid almost any rate in currency for it—even up to 5 ⅜ cent. prem.

Currency (Illinois and Wisconsin) does not seem to be a drug at all to our money dealers, the business wants of the community being sufficient to absorb it. We are not discredited or thrown upon it by the other commercial cities—Cincinnati, Chicago and Louisville placing it at 5 per cent. discount—it would not be docked even 1 per cent. here. But while Chicago, particularly, the commercial seat of its own home gets into such a flurry as to place it at 5 per cent. lower than Eastern exchange, of which she has so little exchange, with her recent want of facilities for making it. She must charge Chicago at least 5 per cent. in currency for exchange remitted to bankers who charge this rate. Yet our business men say that this illinois out to be better than this—that the bonds of Missouri and Virginia, being interest paying, are good; and that in reality those of Missouri at least are as sound now as a month ago, and the citizens of our State of as strong faith and worth as the mushy money as they were before panic-mongers run down this money and her stocks. Because bonds or real estate will not bring its full value in cash in such times as the present, it is no reason why they should be sacrificed, or that they will not soon again advance to their full value. All our money dealers ask is that Illinois will, through her Legislature, soon to convene, so amend her State banking as to make the kind of money redeemable at her capital (Springfield,) or great commercial metropolis (Chicago,) in coin or exchange at a reasonable rate, say ½ per cent. It is trusted this will be done for it was made a question in several of the counties at the recent election, and some Republicans are pledged to it. The banks are as numerous and powerful, however, that they may be able to defeat the wishes of the people. Missouri also wants a law of the kind to enhance the value of her own money, which should be redeemable in coin, or its equivalent, with a small percentage off, at this city. There is no justice in a bank at St. Joseph, in the northwestern part of the State, paying out its money in Charleston, in the southeastern part, so that its unfortunate holders will have to lose 1½@ 1½ ⅜ cent. in paying a debt with it. We reiterate, that our Missouri and Illinois banking, leaves the community to an extent they are little aware of—probably to the tune of $2,000,000 per annum, in the aggregate.

THE TROUBLE AT THE SOUTH FINANCIAL, NOT POLITICAL.

The Auburn Daily Advertiser has received the following letter from Washington, which it thinks may contain the key to the present movement in the South:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12, 1860.

DEAR SIR—I perceive from the New York city papers that the people of the exposed metropolis are very much concerned about the action of the Legislature of South Carolina and Georgia. Being somewhat familiar with the habits of the Southern people and with their pecuniary as well as their political condition at present, I think I am able to advise you that after they shall have got an extension of the time for the payment of their large New York indebtedness; they will be very willing to consent to stay in the Union for another year.

The fact is that the drouth, during the past season, in the South, has so shortened their crops, the cotton crop particularly, that Southern planters and dealers are unable to meet their New York paper. They cannot get relief at their own banks for the reason that they have exhausted their credit there already. You may be surprised when I tell you that nearly one-half of the negroes in South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama, and many in Mississippi, are mortgaged to Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

If you will tell me how long it will take those persons to get an extension, you will be able to tell very nearly how long the disunion panic will continue. I should think some of your friends might be sharp enough to profit by this in the Stock Board, &c. E.

MARINE ITEMS.

PREPARING FOR WINTER.

The steamship Detroit, of the Detroit & Milwaukee Railroad Line, is receiving a new and heavy cast iron stem, similar to that on the Milwaukee, in order to render her more serviceable in case of the formation of ice in our harbor or at Grand Haven during the coming winter. The Wabash Valley, the new screw steamer chartered by the company, took the Detroit's place on Wednesday night, leaving here at 8 o'clock with 36 passengers and a large deck load of freight.—As soon as the Detroit gets her new stem, should there not be a heavy pressure of freight to go for ward, we believe it is the intention to let the Wisconsin take a rest, while she will undergo a general overhauling in her passenger and freight arrangements, the Detroit and Wabash Valley in the mean time forming the regular daily connection with the railroads on each side of the lake. The Wabash Valley is comparatively new, and in every way a staunch and seaworthy vessel. Her passenger accommodations are very much superior to those of a majority of propellers, as she was fitted up with a view of running between Chicago, Milwaukee and the north shore ports. Her machinery is in the best order; she is in charge of a cautious and experienced captain, and is provided with a complete set of "water works" to guard against fire, and every means seemingly employed for the preservation of life in case of disaster or accident. The company have exhibited a commendable regard for the safety and comfort of the traveling public, and the reputation of their line in employing this steamer.

GOING INTO WINTER QUARTERS.

Most of the grain vessels now in port are being stripped of their sails preparatory to laying up for the winter. We noticed yesterday that the bark Jesse Hoyt, schooner Mary M. Scott, and a large three-and-after in the Menominee, had their canvass already stowed away. It is not likely that any more sail vessels will load for Buffalo short of the freight—failing to get that, all that arrive after this date will probably remain here until spring.

ANOTHER VESSEL ASHORE.

The Buffalo Commercial learns that the schooner Cuyahoga, with a cargo of water lime and salt, went ashore at Port Colborne Tuesday morning.

QUICK WORK.
